Fees Paid In Advance Policy

Queen's College, London offers a discount to the termly school fees when the basic school fees are paid in advance for a minimum of one full academic year (three consecutive full terms). The discount rate is currently 1.25% per term. The discount rate will remain as initially set but can be reset if the Finance Committee of Queen's College, London requires. Parents will be informed in advance if this is to happen.

The amount to be prepaid is calculated using the fee level at the time of the prepayment, and the discount is calculated using the prevailing fee level.

The fee bill would appear in this format:

Michaelmas Term

Fees	£6,375.00
Fees Prepaid	-£6,375.00
QC Parents Association	£10.00
School Fee Protection Insurance	£95.63
Fee Sub-total	£105.63
English book	£8.99
Lunches	£101.70
Discount for Prepayment of fees	-£79.69
Disbursement Sub-total	£31.00
Total due	£136.63

Funds paid to Queen's College, London will be held in general funds and may be used as working capital.

The balance of any sum deposited with the College to pay fees in advance will be returned upon request provided no fees are due and conditions of the parent and college contract have been met.

Please contact the Bursar if you have any questions.
