

Full Parent Privacy Notice, May 2018

Introduction

This notice is to help you understand how and why we collect personal information about you and what we do with that information. It also explains the decisions that you can make about your own information.

If you have any questions about this notice please contact the Bursar.

What is "personal information"?

Personal information is information that identifies you as an individual and relates to you.

This includes your contact details, next of kin and financial information. We will also hold information such as your religion or ethnic group.

How and why does the school collect and use personal information?

We set out below examples of the different ways in which we use personal information and where this personal information comes from.

1. The College's primary reason for using your personal information is to provide educational services to your child.
2. We will have information about any family circumstances which might affect your child's welfare or happiness. This is to help us provide appropriate care and support to your child.
3. We will need information about any court orders or criminal petitions which relate to you. This is so that we can safeguard the welfare and wellbeing of your child and the other pupils at the College.
4. We use CCTV to make sure the school site is safe. Images captured of you via CCTV will be your personal data. CCTV is not used in private areas such as toilets.
5. If there is a complaint or grievance made to the College which involves you then we will use your information in connection with that complaint or grievance.
6. Where appropriate, the College will have information about your religious beliefs and practices. For example, if you do not eat certain foods.
7. We may take photographs or videos of you at College events to use on social media and on the College website. This is to show prospective parents and pupils what we do here and to advertise the College. We may continue to use these photographs and videos after your child has left the College.

8. We will send you information to keep you up to date with what is happening at the College. For example, by sending you information about events and activities taking place (including fundraising events) and the College newsletter.
9. We will keep details of your address when your child leaves the College so we can send you the alumnae magazine "Queen's Today" and find out how your child is progressing. We may also pass your details onto the alumnae association. Further information on the alumnae association can be found here:

<http://www.qcl.org.uk/alumnae/alumnae-welcome.php>
10. We may use information about you if we need this for historical research purposes or for statistical purposes.
11. We may use your information when ensuring network and information security, for example, our anti-virus software might scan files containing information about you.

Financial information

12. We will process financial information about you in relation to the payment of fees. In some cases we get information about you from third parties such as credit reference agencies or from your child's previous school(s).
13. We will hold information about bankruptcy petitions and statutory demands.
14. We may search the files of any licensed credit reference agency in order to verify your identity. This also allows us to assess your application for the award of a bursary or for credit in contemplation of an agreement for the deferment of fees. The credit reference agency will keep a record of that search and details about your application. This record will be seen by other organisations that make searches about you.
15. We may share your information with debt recovery suppliers if you do not pay school fees owed to the College.
16. We may obtain information about you from publicly available sources, such as Companies House and Zoopla, to assess your ability to pay College fees.
17. We use a third party organisation called Bursary Administration Limited to assist us with our bursary application process. If you apply for a bursary we will share information about you with Bursary Administration so that they can assess your application.

Failure to supply information may result in a refusal of an award or credit.

Sharing personal information with third parties

18. In accordance with our legal obligations, we will share information with local authorities, the Independent Schools Inspectorate and the Department for Education, for example, where we have any safeguarding concerns or to comply with our legal obligations.
19. On occasion, we may need to share your information with the police for the prevention and investigation of crime and the prosecution of offenders. We will only do this in specific circumstances to assist the police with their investigations.

20. We may need to share information about you with the Health and Safety Executive (a government organisation) if there is a health and safety issue at the College.
21. In certain circumstances, we may also need to share information with our legal advisers for the purpose of obtaining legal advice.
22. Occasionally we may use consultants, experts and other advisors to assist the College in fulfilling its obligations and to help run the College properly (e.g. our accountants). We will share your information with them if this is relevant to their work.
23. If your child is not of British nationality we have to make sure that your child has the right to study in the UK. Sometimes the government will ask us to provide information as part of our reporting requirements.
24. The College is a charity which means that in exceptional circumstances we may need to share your information with the Charity Commission e.g. in the event of a serious incident.
25. We may share information about you with our insurance company, for example, where there is a serious incident at the College.
26. If you have unpaid fees while your child is at the College we may share information about this with other schools or educational establishments to which you intend to send your child.
27. If your child leaves us to attend another school we may need to provide that school with information about you. For example, details of family circumstances if there have been any safeguarding incidents.
28. We may share information about you with others in your family, such as another parent or step-parent. For example, where this is part of our obligation to take care of your child, as part of our wider legal and regulatory obligations, or in connection with school fees.
29. We may need to share information if there is an emergency, for example, if you are hurt whilst on College premises.
30. We sometimes use contractors to handle personal information on our behalf. The following are examples:
 - IT consultants who might access information about you when checking the security of our IT network; and
 - we use third party "cloud computing" services to store some information rather than the information being stored on hard drives located on the School site.

We obtain information about you from admissions forms and from your child's previous school. We may also get information from professionals such as doctors and from local authorities.

Our legal grounds for using your information

This section contains information about the legal bases that we are relying on when handling your information as described above.

Legitimate interests

This means that the College is using your information when this is necessary for the College's legitimate interests except when your interests and fundamental rights override our legitimate interests.

Specifically, the College has a legitimate interest in:

- providing educational services to your child and to other children;
- safeguarding and promoting the welfare of your child, other children and our employees;
- promoting the objects and interests of the College. This includes fundraising and using photographs of you at our school events in promotional material. It also includes making sure that we are able to enforce our rights against you, for example, so that we can contact you if unpaid school fees are due;
- keeping the school buildings safe;
- using your information in connection with legal disputes. For example, if you or your child bring a claim against the College;
- protecting the College's reputation;
- facilitating the efficient operation of the College; and
- ensuring that all relevant legal obligations of the College are complied with (for example, in relation to inspections).

The College is relying on legitimate interests for all of the 30 purposes listed above.

In addition your personal information may be processed for the legitimate interests of others. For example, another school will have a legitimate interest in knowing if you have not paid College fees that are due to us.

Necessary for contract

We will need to use your information in order to perform our obligations under our contract with you and for you to perform your obligations as well. For example, we need your name and contact details so that we can update you on your child's progress and so that we can contact you if there is a concern.

The School is relying on contract for all the following purposes listed above: 1, 2, 3, 4, 12, 17, 19 and 22.

Legal obligation

Where the College needs to use your information in order to comply with a legal obligation, for example to report a concern to Children's Services. We may also have to disclose your information to third parties such as the courts, the local authority or the police where legally obliged to do so. This is relevant to the following purposes above: 18, 19, 20, 21, 23, 24 and 27.

Vital interests

In limited circumstances we may use your information to protect your vital interests or the vital interests of someone else (e.g. if you or they are seriously hurt). This is especially relevant to purpose 29 above.

Performance of a task carried out in the public interest (or carrying out public tasks)

The following are examples of when we use your information to perform tasks in the public interest:

- providing your child with an education;
- safeguarding and promoting your welfare, your child's welfare and the welfare of other children;
- facilitating the efficient operation of the College; and
- ensuring that we comply with all of our legal obligations.

The College is carrying out a public task in respect of the following purposes listed above: 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24 and 28.

The College must also comply with an additional condition where it processes special categories of personal information. These special categories are as follows: personal information revealing racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious or philosophical beliefs, trade union membership, genetic information, biometric information, health information, and information about sex life or orientation.

Substantial public interest

The School is also allowed to use special categories of personal information where doing so is necessary in the substantial public interest. This is similar to "public interest" in the table above and applies to the following purposes listed above: 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24 and 28.

Social protection and social security laws

Also the College may use your information to comply with social protection law (e.g. to look after your child) and social security laws.

Vital interests:

In limited circumstances we may use your information to protect your vital interests or the vital interests of someone else (e.g. if you or they are seriously hurt).

Legal claims:

We are allowed to use your information if this is necessary in relation to legal claims. For example, this allows us to share information with our legal advisors and insurers, see the purposes described in 21 and 25.

Criminal offence information

We may only use information relating to criminal convictions and offences where the law allows us to do so. This will usually be where such processing is necessary to carry out our obligations.

Less commonly, we may use information relating to criminal convictions and offences where it is necessary in relation to legal claims, where it is necessary to protect our pupils and you are not capable of giving your consent, or where you have already made the information public.

Multiple legal grounds

As you will see from the table above, in some cases we rely on more than one of the bases for a particular use of your information. For example, we will rely on contract, legitimate interests and public interest grounds when using your information to provide your child with an education.

The ground that we will rely on for a particular purpose may vary depending on the circumstances. For example, if we decide to tell the local authority something about a parent for safeguarding reasons, sometimes this will be because we have a legal obligation to do so but on other occasions we may tell the local authority because we are worried about the child even if we don't have a legal obligation to report something (in which case we would be relying on legitimate interests and public interests).

Consent

We may ask for your consent to use your information in certain ways as an alternative to relying on any of the grounds in the table above. If we ask for your consent to use your personal information you can take back this consent at any time. Any use of your information before you withdraw your consent remains valid. Please speak to the Bursar if you would like to withdraw any consent given.

Sending information to other countries

In certain circumstances, we may send your information to countries which do not have the same level of protection for personal information as there is in the UK. For example, we may store your information on cloud computer storage based overseas.

The European Commission has produced a list of countries which have adequate data protection rules. The list can be found here:

http://ec.europa.eu/justice/data-protection/international-transfers/adequacy/index_en.htm

If the country that we are sending your information to is not on the list, or is not a country within the EEA (which means the European Union, Liechtenstein, Norway and Iceland), then it might not have the same level of protection for personal information as there is in the UK.

We will provide you with details about the safeguards which we have in place outside of this privacy notice. If you have any questions about the safeguards that are in place, please contact the Bursar.

For how long do we keep your information?

We keep your information for as long as we need to in order to educate and look after your child. We will keep some information after your child has left the College, for example, so that we can find out what happened if you make a complaint.

In exceptional circumstances we may keep your information for a longer time than usual but we would only do so if we had a good reason and only if we are allowed to do so under data protection law.

We can keep information about you for a very long time or even indefinitely if we need this for historical, research or statistical purposes. For example, if we consider the information might be useful if someone wanted to write a book about the College.

Please see our Data Protection Policy for more detailed information. This is available on application from the College Secretary

- Object: you may object to us using your information where:
 - a. we are using it for direct marketing purposes (e.g. to send you the College Newsletter or alumnae magazine "Queen's Today");
